The Rugby Police Department is releasing the following information pursuant to ND Century Code 12.1-32-15, which requires law enforcement agencies to disclose to the public relevant and necessary registration information when a sexual offender registered under this section is a public risk and disclosure of a registration is necessary for public protection.

The individual whose name appears on this notification has been convicted of a crime against a child or an attempted crime against a child, or has plead guilty to a sexual offense. In accordance with North Dakota State Law this individual must register as a sexual offender or an offender against a child.

The offender is not wanted by the police at this time and has served the sentence imposed by the court. This notification is not intended to increase fear to the community.

It is the belief of the Rugby Police Department that as informed public is a safer public. Neither the Rugby Police Department, nor the probation/parole agent supervising the offender has control over where the offender chooses to reside, work, socialize or go to school unless the court has deemed it necessary to place registrations on the offender's movements.

Law enforcement has also been given the authority and the duty of notifying the public of an offender's movements if law enforcement makes a determination that the offender poses a risk to the safety of the public. However, law enforcement will not tolerate the abuse of information released on the offender. The information shared with the public is for "safety" reasons only. This information is not to be used to threaten, harass, assault or intimidate the registered offenders.

Information on high-risk and lifetime offenders is also available on the North Dakota Attorney General's website at www.sexoffender.nd.gov and the Dru Sjodin National Sex Offender Public Website at www.nsopw.gov . These websites have the answers to many frequently asked questions.
